Introducing: Union Informal Art Classes

Want to take an art class but can’t commit to an entire semester? Want to relax and learn something new? Want to be more creative or crafty but don’t know where to start?

Check out Union Informal Art Classes!!!

Once a month the University Union will present an informal class.

- You don’t have to sign up
- You don’t have to buy supplies
- You don’t have to have any art making experience!

Please join us! Space is limited so seats will be given on a first come – first served basis.

January 27th 2:00 pm, Union 382A – Zentangling as Meditation

February 17th 2:00 pm, Union 382A – Watercolor with Local Denton artist Zarina Kay

March 30th 2:00 pm, Union 333A – Macramé Plant Hangers

April 27th 2:00 pm, Union 333A – Screen Printing